

DSDT

Adventure Story Writing Assignment

Objective:

Write an original adventure story for teens that takes place in a fantasy world and features at least one fantasy creature. Your story must have a clear beginning, middle, and end, with engaging descriptions and character development.

Requirements:

- Fantasy Setting: Create a unique world with its own rules, landscapes, and magic.
- Fantasy Creature: Introduce at least one original or well-known fantasy creature (e.g., dragons, griffins, mermaids, shadow beasts, etc.).
- Adventure Plot: Your story should follow a hero or group of characters facing challenges, making discoveries, and overcoming obstacles.
- Character Development: Your main character should grow or change in some way by the end of the story.
- Structured Narrative: Ensure your story has a clear beginning (introduction to the world and characters), middle (main conflict or challenge), and end (resolution or twist).

Length: 800-1,200 words

Tips for Success:

- Start with a strong hook to draw readers in.
- Use vivid descriptions to bring your world and creatures to life.
- Create tension and stakes, what does your hero risk losing?
- End with a satisfying resolution that ties up key plot points.

Evaluation Criteria:

- Creativity and originality (20 points)
- Clear structure with beginning, middle, and end (20 points)
- Engaging characters and fantasy elements (20 points)
- Descriptive language and imagery (20 points)
- Grammar, spelling, and clarity (20 points)

Bonus Challenge: Add a surprising twist or an unexpected alliance with the fantasy creature!

Happy writing, and may your adventure be legendary! 🚀 ✨